Activity Or Mission Description

Description

transgender people and communities through a program of litigation, public policy advocacy, free legal advice and counseling, and public education.

First Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

States by: filing federal litigation challenging anti-LGBT school curriculum laws that prohibit teachers from discussing or supporting LGBT people in a positive way; conducting public education and drafting op-eds and blog posts to increase awareness of the harms such laws cause, including contributing to harassment and a hostile environment for LGBT students; safeguarding the rights of transgender students through litigation; successfully advocating on the school and district level for transgender students to be given access to sex-separated facilities; advocating for clear policies and legal guidance from federal and state agencies that enforce civil rights protections for LGBTQ youth in school. 4. Advocate for low-income and rural communities with federal agencies through our #RuralPride campaign, now without a formal partnership with the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), to raise awareness of the needs of LGBTQ people in rural communities and small towns; being an active member of the LGBTQ Criminal Justice Working group which works with various federal agencies to address the overcriminalization of LGBTQ people and people living with HIV/AIDS. 5. Conduct congressional outreach by: seeking additional co-sponsors for the Therapeutic Fraud Prevention Act; advocating for Senate opposition to biased federal judicial nominees; co-leading LGBTQ Dream Act Strategy Group to support the passage of a clean Dream Act, including Hill visits, sending letters to key members of Congress, co-drafting LGBTQ sign on letter, and publishing a joint op-ed with NCTE; meeting with congressional offices to address the need for criminal justice reform and economic justice pertaining to the LGBTQ community and other vulnerable communities; speaking on congressional briefing panels; developing LGBTQ fact sheets on key federal legislation. 6. Increase access to legal representation and public benefits for low-income LGBTQ people by: providing LGBTQ cultural competency training to legal aid organizations, in particular those that serve rural areas and communities of color; partnering with a statewide legal aid organization to train key staff at legal aid organizations to take the lead on LGBTQ cultural competency; presenting workshops or CLEs to legal aid and pro bono attorneys on LGBTQ legal issues; operating and growing a national listserv of over 250 poverty law advocates discussing LGBTQ issues; convening a gathering of poverty law advocates focusing on LGBTQ issues and moderating a panel at the Lavender Law conference. 7. Work to ensure that all families are respected under the law by: litigating cases challenging the right of same-sex spouses to be recognized as parents and protecting the rights of unmarried same-sex parents and their children; litigating 10 cases advancing the rights of LGBTQ parents and their children and providing technical assistance in 40 additional cases; presenting trainings to 100 attorneys on LGBTQ family law; distributing resources for LGBTQ families to legal services organizations across the country; operating our National Family Law Advisory Council as a brain trust of experts working in states across the country to advance LGBTQ families' rights. 8. Improve outcomes for transgender children and their families by: representing parents in custody disputes who are affirming of their transgender children and providing technical assistance to attorneys in additional cases; advocating for expanded access to medically necessary transition- related care for transgender children; presenting at least 5 sessions on transgender youth and children; operating a legal clinic for families at the Gender Spectrum conference; acting as the legal director for the Child and Adolescent Gender Center, the gender clinic for transgender and gender- expansive youth at UC San Francisco's Benioff Children's Hospital. 9. Promote the health and well-being of LGBT youth in child welfare and juvenile justice systems by: Partnering with the Center for Juvenile Justice Reform at Georgetown to develop a national certificate program on supporting LGBTQ youth in public systems of care; developing legislation in California to ensure that foster youth have access to competent transition-related care; drafting a chapter on representing children in dependency proceedings for a manual issued by the National Association of Counsel for Children; working with the Center for Children's Law and Policy to develop a model policy governing housing of transgender youth in secure settings; and working in 5 jurisdictions to implement SOGIE data collection protocols. 10. Advance reproductive justice (RJ) and foster collaboration between the LGBTQ and RJ movements by: participating and leading intra- and extra-movement conversations about the intersection between LGBTQ and RJ work; working within the RJ community to promote trans-inclusive messaging; supporting the EACH Woman Act, prohibiting states from restricting insurance coverage of abortion; writing articles and presenting about the impact of religious liberty on LGBTQ rights and access to reproductive health care; co-developing guidelines for providers around best practices for serving trans patients of color; providing technical assistance to state-based organizations on non- discrimination in the Affordable Care Act. 11. Challenge homophobia, biphobia, and transphobia in sports by: improving conditions for high school transgender student athletes by working with state high school associations; working on individual sports discrimination cases; leading a national project, "Seeking Common Ground: Creating Respectful Athletic Climate for Athletes and Coaches of All Religious Perspective, Sexual Orientation, and Gender Identity or Expression" (with the National Collegiate Athletic Association). 12. Protect LGBTQ youth from so-called "conversion therapy" by: helping state legislatures and equality groups pass bills banning conversion therapy through assistance in drafting, advocating for, and executing two new successful state laws that prohibit these practices; defending successful state laws against constitutional challenge; representing survivors in and out of court in holding conversion therapy practitioners accountable for the harm they cause; working with state agencies to address conversion therapy through regulation and executive action; educating parents and the public about the dangers of these practices through the Born Perfect website, workshops, and media outlets; and building a rapidly growing network of conversion therapy survivors empowered to speak about their stories to families, professionals who work with youth, and the media. 13. Help overcome immigration hurdles faced by lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender immigrants, including those in detention and immigration court proceedings. Provide free legal assistance, direct representation to LGBT immigrants in 100 impact cases and individual asylum claims, and assist private attorneys representing LGBT immigrants throughout the U.S. 14. Provide legal assistance, information and referrals to the public through approximately 1,500 phone calls and correspondence received by our Legal Helpline. Topics we provide assistance on include: marriage and relationship recognition, adoption, legal parentage, child custody and support, discrimination in employment, housing and public accommodations, estate planning, public benefits, sexual and gender identity discrimination, school harassment and discrimination, name and gender changes (continued in Statement O)
